QCash Financial brings digital life event lending to Credit Union of Texas

QCash digital lending offers Credit Union of Texas efficient, affordable access to life event loans

Olympia, Wash., October 1, 2022 – QCash Financial CUSO has partnered with Allen, Texas-based Credit Union of Texas (CUTX) to offer its digital life event lending platform to the cooperative with more than 150,000 members across North Texas and East Texas.

“CUTX is excited to begin offering the QCash life event lending platform to our membership,” says Angela Faust, Senior Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer for CUTX. “The platform’s ease of use and accessibility to small dollar funds can change the financial inclusion and health opportunities for our members in the communities we serve.”

“QCash is excited to offer CUTX members an efficient and financially-inclusive path to economic health and inclusion,” says Seth Brickman, QCash CEO. “Members can now access the financial assistance they need, when they need it, while continuing to build loyalty and trust with their dependable credit union.”

The QCash technology facilitates life event, specialty, and emergency response lending that uses relational data rather than credit score or credit report for underwriting and provides small dollar loan funding in under 60 seconds.

About Credit Union of Texas

For almost 100 years, Credit Union of Texas has provided financial services to members throughout North Texas. Living out its vision to deliver an unexpected experience, CUTX has grown to over $2 billion in assets. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works or worships, or is related to a member in Dallas, Denton, Collin, Rockwall or Upshur and its surrounding counties. In the last year, CUTX was recognized with the Communities Foundation of Texas “Be in Good Company” Seal of Excellence, voted the Best Credit Union in DFW by the readers of The Dallas Morning News and named the winner of the Torch Awards for Ethics, Better
